

Get Quick Insights into Your Target Talent Pools

Leverage Search Insights in LinkedIn Recruiter to increase your own understanding of your target talent, provide your team with insights about the market for talent, and be a strategic advisor for your company.

Run your search

Click View search insights

Toggle between tabs to see the data behind your search illuminated in interactive bar charts

View member profiles and take action

Click any of the interactive bar charts and get insights into how your overall talent pool changes as you adjust your role requirements

Print this data to share and educate your team members, hiring manager, and organization about market realities

Companies tab: View where potential candidates are currently employed and what companies they've worked for in the past

Experience tab: Gain a better understanding of candidate experience level and years in their current position

Education tab: View the top schools candidates have attended and their fields of study

Location tab: See where the greatest concentration of candidates reside

Compare All tab: Deepen your understanding of the candidate market by comparing all the data on one page

